

Jochen Schmidt

Member of the Advisory Board

Experienced investment banker and networker

Jochen Schmidt spent more than 20 years in leading investment banking positions at Sal. Oppenheim and Berenberg. During this time he has advised on more than 250 capital market and M&A transactions, underpinning his status as an expert in growth financing. Jochen Schmidt has a close-knit network in the capital markets and with decision-makers in the TMT industries. He is a sought-after discussion partner on digitalisation and transformation issues.

Lawyer with a banking background

Before his career in investment banking, Jochen Schmidt first trained as a bank clerk at Dresdner Bank in Hanover. In 1986 he successfully completed his law studies at the University of Hamburg with the second state examination. Jochen Schmidt is admitted to the bar at the Frankfurt Regional Court.

Connected to the region and the financial industry

Born in Northern Germany, he is married and has lived with his wife in the Taunus region outside Frankfurt for many years. He contributes his know-how and network to various mandates, in addition to ALLINCAPITALS at the M&A boutique Lincoln International and at AHP Capital Management.
