

Carsten Werle, CFA

Managing Partner

A passion for capital markets

Carsten Werle founded ALLINCAPITALS 2021 together with Marcus Sander. After graduating from high school in his hometown of Neuss, he studied economics in Kiel, Paris and Cologne. He turned his passion for economics and capital markets into a profession in 1998. In 15 years as an analyst, he headed, among others, the European research of the bank Sal. Oppenheim and the German-Swiss research of Macquarie Securities. He then worked for Talanx AG in Hanover for ten years, helped to take the company public and took over as Head of Investor Relations in 2013.

Strategic and digital communication

Carsten Werle and his teams organised investor conferences and investor days in Frankfurt, London, Zurich, Hanover and Warsaw. For Talanx AG, he was responsible for organising the annual general meeting. He accompanied capital market and M&A transactions, helped develop a CEO agenda and meticulously prepared decision-makers for appearances on the capital market. He was an early adopter of virtual and hybrid event formats as well as his own IR podcast.

Award-winning work

In 2010, Carsten Werle and his team won the Handelsblatt award for the best German research house. In 2019 and 2020, he and his team won the German IR Award ("Deutscher IR-Preis") for the SDAX. In the individual ranking, he took 1st place in 2019 and 2nd place in 2020. Carsten Werle has a close network among banks, investors and service providers at home and abroad.

European with Rhineland roots

Carsten Werle, born in 1972, lives with his partner in Cologne. He is business fluent in English and has good French and Spanish language skills.
